2017 U.S. ARMY SMALL ARMS CHAMPIONSHIPS

12 - 18 MARCH 2017

This event is open to Active Army, Army Reserve, Guard (NG and ANG) and Military Academy, College ROTC Cadets & OCS Candidates

The US Army Small Arms Championships (All-Army) is an advanced combat live-fire training event. Training and skill exercises are applicable to all military small arms firing disciplines. While the elements and spirit of competition are important, all Soldiers are reminded that the Army's critical intent is to develop combat firing skills at the entry and intermediate level (as well as recognizing superior skill at the highest levels) and to raise the standard of marksmanship across the entire force.

Hosted By The Maneuver Center Of Excellence and Ft. Benning, GA

Conducted By the Army Marketing Research Group and Accessions Support Brigade's U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit
