

U.S. ARMY

MARKSMANSHIP SYMPOSIUM

Hosted By The U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit

This planned annual event will share lessons and resources as well as identify needs and solutions across the Army's marksmanship community, with an emphasis on small-arms training & doctrine, updated POI review, best practices, course improvement opportunities, course challenges and Soldier skills

WHO:

BDE level and higher NCOs and other leaders responsible for managing, developing, and executing marksmanship training programs. Other Level-IV Marksmanship Master Trainers are welcome to participate

WHAT:

Forum to discuss the state of Army marksmanship and the way forward

WHEN:

In stride with MWfC, SEP2016

WHERE:

Ft. Benning, GA

WHY:

To provide a forum for the Army's marksmanship experts focused on improving marksmanship and building ties across the Army's marksmanship network

For more information contact:

CPT Pickett – S3/HHD CDR, USAMU
james.m.pickett2.mil@mail.mil
SFC Rose – Team Chief ITG, USAMU
kenneth.t.rose.mil@mail.mil

MARKSMANSHIP SYMPOSIUM

Hosted By The U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit

The purpose of this planned annual event is to provide a forum for the Army's marksmanship experts focused on improving marksmanship and building ties across the Army's marksmanship network
Topics of discussion for this symposium include:

- Capstone Marksmanship Event
- Update on TRADOC marksmanship courses
  - Initial Military Training POIs
  - NCOES/OES POIs
  - Marksmanship Master Trainer Course Updates
  - Sniper School
- Updates on newly published and working marksmanship doctrine
  - 3-22.4 (IWTS), 3-22.9 (Rifle), 3-22.35 (Pistol)
- Updates from the division/troop schools
- Effective marksmanship training ideas and challenges
  - From the institutional force
  - From the operational force
- Emerging and ongoing R&D Efforts from CDID
- Marksmanship myths and obstacles
- EST tools and techniques
- Other Army marksmanship training resources

For more information contact:
CPT Pickett – S3/HHD CDR, USAMU
james.m.pickett2.mil@mail.mil
SFC Rose – Team Chief ITG, USAMU
kenneth.t.rose.mil@mail.mil